Selected seminar papers and publications:

"Charitable Gift Planning," webinar series through HalfMoon Education, Inc. (December 2017)

- [series of six webinars, one hundred minutes each, ten hours total, covering the basic principles of tax-sensitive charitable gift planning, from percentage limitations and reduction rules through bargain sales, gift annuities, remainder trusts, pooled income funds, and lead trusts.]

"Overlooked Questions in PLR 201735006," pending publication in Tax Notes (11/05/17)

- [exploring questions not addressed in a letter ruling confirming that an adjustment between the trustee of a multi-generational trust and a nonskip beneficiary arising from the misreporting of capital gain as a passthrough item would not cause the trust to lose its grandfathered status as exempt from the generation-skipping transfer tax or trigger other transfer tax consequences for the beneficiary.]

"Waiting for the Other Shoe," 156 Tax Notes 1575 (09/18/17)

- [examining in detail the issues raised -- and some overlooked -- in the Tax Court decision in Estate of Dieringer v. Commissioner, 146 T.C. 117 (2016), which disallowed a large portion of a claimed estate tax charitable deduction for a transfer of the decedent's controlling interest in a closely-held corporation to a private foundation, where the corporation redeemed the stock at a steep discount from its reported estate tax value. At the time of publication, the decision was pending appeal to the 9th Circuit federal appeals court.]

"Odds and Ends," paper presented at breakfast meeting of the Planned Giving Roundtable of Southern Arizona (09/06/17)

- [update on pending tax legislation, recent formal and informal IRS guidance, and Tax Court and federal appeals court decisions, together with a case study on early termination of a charitable gift annuity]

"Why the Nonprofit Sector Should Care About Transfer Tax Reform," paper presented at the 2016 Minnesota Planned Giving Council annual conference in St. Paul, MN (11/17/16)

"Landmark or Mirage," article published in North Carolina Lawyers Weekly (05/20/16)

- [examining procedural anomalies undermining the viability of Brown Bros. Harriman Trust Co. v. Benson, 688 S.E.2d 752 (N.C.App. 2010), as precedent on the question whether a statute abrogating the rule against perpetuities as to trusts violates a state constitutional prohibition of perpetuities]

"Income and transfer tax issues arising from split interest gifts," paper presented at the 2013 Minnesota Planned Giving Council annual conference in St. Paul, MN (09/26/13)

- also presented at various Oregon Community Foundation breakfast and luncheon meetings in 2013

"Exiting the underproductive charitable remainder trust," paper presented at the 2012 National Conference on Planned Giving in New Orleans, LA (10/04/12)

- updated version presented at breakfast meeting of Northwest Planned Giving Roundtable 07/17/15

"Don't try this at home: reforming the nonqualified split interest trust," paper presented at the 2009 National Conference on Philanthropic Planning in National Harbor, MD (10/15/09)

- earlier version presented at luncheon meeting of Eastern Iowa Planned Giving Council in 2004

"A second bite of the apple: commuting the underproductive charitable remainder trust," paper presented at the 2003 National Conference on Planned Giving in Cincinnati, Ohio (10/23/03)

"Proposed minimum required distribution regulations afford charitable gift planning opportunities," published at Planned Giving Design Center website (02/08/01)

- revised for publication at 3 Journal of Tax Practice and Procedure 42 (April/May, 2001)

"Surrendering the lead interest in a remainder trust," Planned Giving Today, Vol.X, no. 8 (August, 1999)

"Aggressive use of section 456.590.2, RSMo. to modify or terminate an irrevocable trust," seminar paper presented at the Missouri Bar annual meeting (09/24/98)

"Funding a charitable remainder trust with encumbered property," seminar paper presented at the Missouri Bar annual meeting (09/19/96)

- revised for publication at Planned Giving Design Center website (07/07/99)

"QTIP proposed regulations require careful drafting approaches to maximize flexibility," 13 Taxation for Lawyers 372 (May/June, 1985)

- cited by Tax Court in support of its decision in Estate of Howard v. Commissioner, 91 T.C. 329 (1988), rev'd 910 F.2d 633 (9th Cir. 1990)

"QTIP-ing the 'spousal remainder' trust," 41 Journal of the Missouri Bar 85 (March, 1985)
